Ultraproxies Privacy Policy – July 22, 2013

=================================

This website uses Google Analytics to help analyze how this site is used. The way we do that is Cookies. Which are text files placed on your computer to collect standard Internet log information in an anonymous form. This information is then used to evaluate visitors' use of the website and to compile statistical reports on website activity for Ultraproxies.

In case you do not want even anonymous data collected and want to opt out. Below we list a number of ways to prevent the collection of any data from Google Analytics as well as ways to prevent it on all sites, not just Ultraproxies.

We will never (and will not allow any third party to) use this information to track or to collect any Personally Identifiable Information (PII) of visitors to our site.

Disabling Anonymous Statistics Gathering by Google Analytics:

==

The simplest way to prevent Google Analytics from gathering any anonymous data is to turn off the use of Cookies in your browser.

Or visitors can opt-out of Google Analytics for Display Advertising and customize Google Display Network ads using the following web page: https://www.google.com/settings/ads

Or you can go even further and prevent Google Analytics from gathering any information whatsoever from any website by going to https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout/ and download and install the Google-Analytics Opt-Out Browser Add-On!

This privacy policy is subject to change without notice and was last updated on July 22, 2013. If you have any questions please contact me directly at: admin@ultraproxies.com.
